RAILROAD CONDEMNATION CASE
TRIED AT SAVANNAH.

SIMILARITY IN VERDICTS

Only $62 Difference Between Finding of the Condemnation Commissioners and That of Jury Trial.

Attorneys W. A. Blagg and George Robb Ellison of this city returned from Savannah Wednesday evening, where they had been representing the Chicago Great Western railway in the condemnation suit against Bernard Kemper and John Holtman of Conception Junction.

The case was tried before a jury and the verdict of the jury was for $1,238.50 damages for Kemper and $1,399.50 damages for Holtman.

The railway company condemned seven acres of land belonging to Kemper and nine acres of land belonging to Holtman for terminal purposes at Conception Junction. No satisfactory agreement could be reached between the railway people and the owners of this land, and three commissioners were appointed by Judge Burnes to assess the damages to the land. The commissioners were J. W. Ray, C. D. Hocker and George Custer. The case went from Nodaway county to Andrew county on a change of venue.

The commissioners assessed Kemper's damages at $1,200 and Holtman's damages at $1,500.

The railroad company thought the damages too high, and the land owners didn't think they were enough. So both sides filed exceptions to the report of the commissioners, and the question of damages was tried before a jury in the Andrew county circuit court, with the result as above stated.

A peculiar feature of the case was that Kemper was given $28.50 more by the jury than by the commissioners' report, and Holtman given $100.50 less than the report of the commissioners. The total amount awarded by the jury was $62 less than the total amount given by the commissioners. Of course, the jury did not know who the commissioners were or the amount they awarded, and that they assessed the damages at nearly the same figures as the commissioners, did is remarkable.

HENRY ROSS DEAD

FUNERAL SERVICES WERE HELD THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

AGE SIXTY-NINE YEARS

Probably the Second Person Born in Nodaway County—Had Quite a History.

Henry Ross of the firm of Ross & Son, department store at Ravenwood, died Wednesday at his home in Ravenwood, after a nine days' illness of pneumonia.

The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the M. P. church in Ravenwood, conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. R. Greene. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Leonard of Gentry, Mo., an old friend and former pastor of Mr. Ross. The G. A. R. of Ravenwood had charge of the burial services in Ravenwood cemetery. Mr. Ross was well known throughout the county, especially among the old soldiers, and quite a number from Maryville and other towns were in attendance. Those from Maryville were Joseph Jackson, John M. Evans, Alex. Gray and O. P. Wade.

Henry Ross was born on a farm northeast of Guilford, in Nodaway county, on March 15, 1843, being perhaps the second person born in this county. Elton Smith of Jackson township said to be the oldest. At the age of 9 years his father died, when less than 40 years of age, leaving a widow with six small children, one of whom died soon afterward. His mother died January 20, 1862.

After the death of his mother, Henry Ross enlisted in Company F, Twelfth Missouri cavalry, for service in the Union army, and was with this company till 1865. In 1865, under command of Colonel Cole, Second Missouri artillery, he accompanied his regiment on a western expedition. Joseph Jackson, Sr., president of the First National bank of Maryville, was in the same company as Mr. Ross.

After Lee's surrender this regiment was sent across the plains to Powder river, to Montana and Wyoming, then back to Ft. Laramie, leaving Omaha, Neb., on July 1, 1865, and marched to Powder river. On April 1, 1866, after constant marching and frequent fights with the Indians, in which the regiment lost a number of men, it arrived at its destination. Once Mr. Ross' company was led after some Indians, who cut them off from the main body of troops, but after considerable trouble they managed to escape. Once for a period of thirteen days they had no bread, living on meat alone, and mule meat at that, most of the time. Mr. Ross was discharged at Leavenworth, Kan., on April 9, 1866, and soon afterward returned to Nodaway county, and for two or three years was not able to do much hard work. He finally began farming in Jackson township, continuing until about twelve years ago, when he moved to Ravenwood and was engaged in business with his son, S. P. Ross, at the time of his death.

Mr. Ross was a Republican in politics. He served as the first township collector in Jackson township, and also served on the township board and Mr. Ross was married in 1869, in as constable.

Independence township, to Paulina F. Deshazer. Ten children were born to this union, of whom eight, with their mother, survive. They are: Mrs. Hurley Nelson of Jackson township; Mrs. J. W. Kessler of Kansas, Misses Hatlie, Grace and Ethel, at home; Mrs. William Woodburn of near Orrsburg, this county, and Frank Ross and S. P. Ross of Ravenwood.

Mr. Ross was a member of the G. A. R. post of Ravenwood and was a supporter of the Methodist Protestant church, although not a member.

The little boy is not dangerously ill, and the parents have no fears.

Dr. William Wallis, Jr., has been appointed examining army surgeon for Company F in Maryville.

CAME FROM IRELAND

JAMES HOGAN PASSED AWAY
WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

HAD LIVED HERE 14 YEARS

Came to America When Six Years Old
With His Young Brother and Sister—Made the Trip Alone.

James Hogan, who made his home with his sister, Mrs. B. Mallam, at 394 North Mulberry street, died at 10:20 o'clock Wednesday night, March 1, after a year's illness of Bright's disease.

The funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mallam, conducted by the pastor of the First M. E. church, Rev. Dr. J. S. Ford. Interment in Miriam cemetery. Mr. Hogan is survived by his son, Oscar Hogan, who is in the employ of the John Taylor Dry Goods company of Kansas City, who arrived before his father's death, and his sister, Mrs. Mallam. Two brothers, Joseph and John Hogan, died a number of years ago and are buried in St. Columba's cemetery at Conception.

Mr. Hogan was born in Tullamore, County Queen, Ireland, March 1, 1844, making him 67 years old on the day of his death. When he was 6 years old his parents died, and with his 10-year-old sister, Mary, who is Mrs. Mallam, and his 12-year-old brother, John, they were placed in the care of a guardian. An older brother and two sisters, Joseph Hogan and Bridget and Ann Hogan, all in young manhood and young womanhood, had come to America about seven years before the death of the parents, the brother having located in Greenfield, Ill., and the sisters in New York City.

The news of the death of the parents did not reach the brother and sisters in America for several weeks, for news and men traveled slow in those days. When the news did come, Joseph Hogan, the elder brother, began at once to make arrangements for bringing the little brothers and sisters to America and secure homes for them.

At last, in 1850, they started from their native town, Tullamore, a fortress of Queen Victoria's army, their guardian accompanying them to Dublin in a stage coach.

At Dublin the children began the journey alone, going to Liverpool, where they were placed in charge of the captain of the sailing vessel that brought them to America. For seven long weeks they tossed on the ocean under bright skies and over calm waters, then through fog and storms that threatened destruction. But they were well cared for by the good captain, and they soon learned through simple child faith that "God was on the water just the same as on the land," and were good sailors by the time they reached New Orleans.

By some mistake, letters written by the brother and guardian to the various stopping places along the way did not all reach their destination, and at New Orleans no one was there to meet the three little orphans from Erin's isle. However, the captain of the sailing vessel put them in charge of the captain on a boat to St. Louis, where they were met by a business man in that city, who kept them several days and took them to his home, and stopped everyone he met to see "the three children who came all alone from Ireland." He displayed them in his store to many who came to see them, and they were loved and petted and admired to their hearts' content wherever they went.

They were taken to Alton, Ill., next, where they were again met by a business man, who was waiting for them, and after being the object of admiration there for a day or so, they were taken on the train to Brighton, Ill., and then by carriage to Greenfield, Ill., where a big, generous, kind brother waited to receive them. Good homes were soon found for them, and all went well with them. James and Mary were placed in Methodist homes, and they grew up in that faith, while the older children secured homes among people of their own faith, that of the Catholic church.

Mr. Hogan worked on a farm and attended the district schools until he was 17 years old, when he enlisted for service in the civil war in the Ninety-first Illinois, Company K, volunteer infantry. After the war Mr. Hogan married Miss Frances Patton of Kentucky, who died in six years after their marriage, leaving him an 11-months-old son, who was raised to young manhood by Mrs. Mallam.

Mr. Hogan engaged in the grocery business for a number of years in Illinois, but on account of ill health had not given his attention to any business for a long time. He came to Maryville fourteen years ago with his sister's family.

BROWN BROTHERS' NEW OFFICE ROOMS

Dr. W. H. Brown, the osteopathic physician, and his brother, J. C. Brown, with whom he is also engaged in the real estate business, have taken new office rooms in the Michau block, over the Townsend grocery store. This move was made necessary by their increased business and they are now situated to carry it on without being hampered by lack of room.

Dr. Brown is one of the most skillful and successful practitioners the A. T. Still school of osteopathy has graduated. He came to Maryville in September, 1903, soon after his graduation, and by his always gentlemanly dealings with all whom he meets he has won the success that is his. He has a very large practice throughout the county.

About a year ago he formed a partnership with his brother in the real estate business, which is conducted by Mr. Joseph Brown. That business is also highly successful, and they are more than satisfied with the business the firm has accomplished in the last nine months.

BRYAN WAS ONCE OFFERED A BRIBE

William J. Bryan was offered a bribe of $1,000,000 for his vote while a member of congress, according to a story in the Omaha World-Herald. The offer was made while Mr. Bryan was a member of congress during the Cleveland administration. At that time he was one of the committee on ways and means. The proposition was that Mr. Bryan should bring in a minority report on the bill to issue $150,000,000 of bonds payable in gold, principal and interest.

The article gives no intimation as to whom the bribe offer came from. The article, which came second-hand to the World-Herald, is credited to a former banker of Lincoln, Neb., who has since died.

In substance, the story follows:

The banker, while in Washington, visiting J. Sterling Morton, then secretary of agriculture, and Mr. Bryan, was approached by two men, whose names are not given, and was offered $30,000 if he would obtain Mr. Bryan's consent to kill the minority report on the bill which was then pending. He was authorized to offer Bryan $1,000,000 for the service. If Bryan refused, but would agree to absent himself when the bill came up for debate, Bryan was to receive $30,000. The banker refused, but later saw the same two men talking with Bryan. Two hours later Bryan told the banker he had refused an offer of a bribe of $1,000,000.

THE AVERAGE MAN.

Mine is a song of the average man Who has been on earth since the world began!

You will find him kind, and you'll find him true.

You'll find him cheerful and happy,
too.

He's never proud and he's never mean,
He walks the earth with a conscience clean.

The squarest fellow that God could plan

On earth today is the average man.

He loves his wife and he loves his home,

He isn't the fellow who likes to roam;
He keeps his love for his fellow man
And bears his burden as best he can.

He's a gentle neighbor, a faithful friend,

And will fight for him to the bitter end.

The dearest fellow that God could
plan

On earth today is the average man.

The average man doesn't cheat or lie,
Or wrong his brothers. He doesn't try
To climb to glory and gain the crown
By pulling a weaker brother down.
He's always found on the side of right;

His crest is always a spotless white,
And oft as the wrongs of the world I scan,

I thank the Lord for the average man.

A Winning Argument, Though.

At a charity bazaar in a New England town an elderly gentleman was approached by a charming young woman who urged that he take a "chance" on a meerschaum pipe.

"I'd be glad to take a chance if I smoked," said the old gentleman pleasantly.

"Oh, but you can learn!" exclaimed the young woman. "Do take a chance. Only a quarter."

"No, thank you," said the old gentleman. "Tobacco doesn't agree with me. Why, I'd have no earthly use for that pipe."

"Take a chance, anyway," persisted the young woman. "There isn't the least probability of your winning it, you know."—Lippincott's Magazine.

MONTGOMERY SHOE COMPANY

112 SOUTH MAIN STREET

TIME EXPIRES FOR INTRODUCING MEASURES

Jefferson City, Mo.—Under the resolution adopted last week, today was the last day for the introduction of house bills, except revenue measures and those offered with the unanimous consent of the members.

The expiration of the time limit caused a flood of new measures to be offered, increasing the total of would-be laws most of which will never get past the embryonic stage, to 1,250.

Among the more important bills offered was one, introduced by Mr. Rooney of Jasper county, creating a state public service commission, similar to that in New York and Massachusetts. This commission, the bill prescribes, shall be composed of three members to be appointed by the governor, not more than two of whom shall be of the same political party.

It is given supervision over every sort of public utilities except steam railroads, which the board of railroad and warehouse commissioners regulates. The salary of the public service commissioners is fixed at $2,500 each, and the secretary of the commission $2,500. The body is given broad powers to regulate street and interurban railways, gas, electric light, heat and power companies, telephone and telegraph companies, water works, etc.

Another new bill authorizes the creation of a commission to investigate the employers' liability and employees' compensation question and to report to the next general assembly. This commission, the bill provides, shall consist of eight members, four to be appointed by the Governor and two each by the president pro tem of the senate and the speaker of the house.

Each commissioner is to receive $5 per day for the time actually employed and expenses, but no commissioner to receive more than $500.

Mr. Swearingen of Kansas City offered a municipal court of common pleas bill for that city. It provides for a tribunal of six divisions, each judge to receive $2,700 a year. The governor is given the power to appoint the Judges, who shall serve until the next regular election.

Speaker Barker submitted a bill compelling persons owning or occupying farm lands to drag roads in front and along their property after each rain. The bill appropriates $50,000 of the general revenue fund to perform the work.

Mr. Grigg of Montgomery introduced a bill which many members of the house believe will result in driving out of the oil business in Missouri all companies, but the Standard and the Waters Pierce companies. Mr. Gregg said the bill was not so intended, and he did not think it would in any way hamper the independent dealer.

Representatives Coll and McMurray jointly offered a new capitol bill, providing for a 5-cent tax increase to pay for a $3,000,000 building. The proposition is subject to ratification by the people.

A bill, by Mr. Craig of Nodaway licenses "drugless healers" and requires them to advertise weekly in a newspaper in the town, city or county in which they are located, whether they are practicing under a diploma or license.

She Could Spell if She Couldn't Write.

She is a bright little girl and an adept at imitating grownups. Recently she saw her mother writing a letter to her father, who was in a hospital, and decided that she would write a letter, too. She scribbled away, as little children do, and finally presented a scrawl, neatly folded, as if ready for mailing.

"What did you say in your letter?" asked the mother.

"Oh, all about papa being sick and taking quinine," she answered.

"Taking quinine! Why, your father has a broken ankle. But, tell me, how did you spell quinine?"

"Oh, I spelled it all right."

"But how, dear?"

Not the Turtle's Fault.

Mr. Marrynew (a little crossly)—This soup, Agnes, doesn't seem to taste much like turtle.

WESTERN ROADS WILL NOT APPEAL

Thirty-Five Companies to Comply With Decision.

TO WITHDRAW HIGHER RATES

May Submit Advances on Certain Tariffs at Later Date—Meeting Held at Western Trunk Lines Association Headquarters.

Chicago, March 2.—Thirty-five western railroads decided to make no appeal from the recent decision of the interstate commerce commission denying the roads the right to increase freight rates. They will accept the decree of the commission as final.

The decision was reached at a meeting of representatives of the roads at the Western Trunk Line association headquarters here. The opinion was advanced by many that the roads would be unable to make any stronger showing before the new commerce court than they had before the commission and that once the new court had ruled its decree would be binding for two years.

It also was argued that if the roads comply with the decree without objection and withdraw the advanced tariffs before March 10 there will be an opportunity at a later date to submit advances on certain rates, some of which may meet with favor.

HEYBURN SCORES FORESTERS

Makes Futile Attempt to Cut Down Fund for Maintaining Reserves.

Washington, March 2.—Senator Heyburn (Ida.) made a futile attempt in the senate to reduce the annual expenditures for the maintenance of national forest reserves from more than $5,000,000 to $1,000,000 by introducing an amendment to the agricultural bill and brought down on his head the wrath of friends of the forest service, who said he was trying to kill a settled policy of the government.

The question arose in connection with the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill. The amendment was defeated—19 to 50.

"This amendment comes from an open, frank and avowed enemy of the forest policy of the United States," vehemently declared Senator Root.

During his general criticism of the forest service Heyburn said that in one way and another congress is appropriating almost $8,000,000 annually for the protection of the forests. He charged the foresters with using the reserves for their own benefit. He alleged that they profit by collecting bounties for killing wild animals.

"They create the reserves, prevent others from hunting, kill the game themselves and then collect from the state. They have a private snap. They are suckers-grafters," he said.

"Fainting Bertha" Sentenced.

Kansas City, March 2.—For stealing a watch here, "Fainting Bertha" Lathe was sentenced by Judge Lathaw to three months in the workhouse. Contrary to custom, Bertha did not promise to be good after her release. She said she would steal again, it being natural for her.

Abe Ruef Committed to Prison.

San Francisco, March 2.—An order committing Abraham Ruef to San Quentin penitentiary, where he will serve a term of fourteen years for the bribing of Supervisor John J. Furey, was made by Superior Judge William P. Lawler.

Suffrage Bill Is Killed.

Pierre, S. D., March 2.—An equal suffrage measure was killed in the lower house of the South Dakota legislature by a vote of 56 to 42. It had passed the senate.

SAGE AND SULPHUR

Made Her Look Twenty Years Younger

READ MRS. HERRICK'S SWORN STATEMENT

STATE OF NEW YORK } ss.: ROCHESTER, N. Y.
COUNTY OF MONROE }

Nancy A. Herrick, being duly sworn, deposes and says: When I was a girl I had a head of heavy, long, dark brown hair which was the envy of my friends and which attracted the attention and remarks of strangers, but as I grew older it commenced to come out. When my hair was quite thin and gray, I was induced by the many good reports I had heard of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to try a bottle; and you can imagine my satisfaction when I found my hair was fast coming back to its natural condition. I continued to use Sage and Sulphur until my hair was as heavy, dark and smooth as when I was a girl of sixteen. It is now four years since I began using Sage and Sulphur and my hair is in splendid condition.

Sworn to before me this 11th day of July, 1902.
